Letter of Intent to Home School

Pursuant to Colorado law, parents who wish to begin home schooling must provide written notification of the establishment of the homeschool program 14 days before beginning the homeschool program to a Colorado school district. The written notification must include the name, age, place of residence, and number of attendance hours for each child that will be participating in the homeschool program. Written notification must be re-submitted to a Colorado school district each year.

I am providing written notification of my intent to homeschool my child(ren):

Parent/Guardian Name: _____

Student(s) Name and Age:

Place of Residence:

Number of Attendance Hours, per Child:

Please submit this form to the school district of residence.

Please Note: Written notification must be re-submitted to the school district each year the home school program is maintained after the initial year. If the written notification is not submitted to the school district the student resides in, it is advisable to notify the residing school district as well to avoid truancy action.
